If not, at 3. How to Conduct a Derling Correspondence Dr. Tanuer received the following telegram from Major Jones of Penzance at the house of commons on Monday: "In reply to your despicable question about the Duke of Cambridge, I designate you a coward. Dolighted to give you satis faction across the water. Pistols." To this the anti-Parnellite whip at once replied: "Wire received. Will meet you tomorrow in Constantinople, under the tower of Galata, midnight. Being challenged, profer torpedees. Bring another ass.—Tanner." Yesterday another dispatch from the Cornish watering place was delivered at Westminster: "Unwittingly you have confirmed my telegram but not the challenge. - J. Jones, Ma jor." Dr. Tanner's second message ran thus: "Wire received. Sorry you funked the torpedoes. Stick to Constantinople. Bring the moke.—Tanner." There the correspondence rests for the present.— New York Sun.

Getting a Jury In Chicago. Judge Burke had some difficulty with the material that was called for jury service in his court this morning.

The men did not grade high, and some of them returned strange answers to common questions, as, for example, one man who was asked what the term defendant meant said it meant "mind your own business." Another candidate for jury service declared that "defend-ant" referred to the lawyer.

"If you were taken as a juror," asked the court, addressing a third man, "what would you expect to do?"

"Why, find the man guilty of course," was the ready answer. All three men were excased.—Chicago News.
